

FEDERAL AND STATE PROPERTY IN ROBINSON LOOT

$75,000 Road Improvement Ordered

WYOMING AND HARMON ROADS TO BE TREATED

Gravel Surfaces Are Agreed to By Co.
Supervisors.

At the adjourned meeting of the Lee county board of supervisors this week, action was taken which will provide two highly important roadways leading into Dixon. Supervisors H. A. Knetsch of Paw Paw and Thomas Long of Harmon were successful in securing important improvements in their townships, and as a result a total of $75,000 will be expended in rebuilding roads of gravel surface leading to Dixon.

In the amount of moneys advanced for state aid roads by Lee county, a sum of $75,000 was refunded by the state, being due to the county and at the adjourned meeting of the board the matter was discussed and steps were inaugurated providing for the rebuilding of roads in Lee county as soon as the state department of public highways can take hold of the work.

In the interest of fairness, the amount of the refund was divided into two equal parts, one to be used in the east end of the county and the other in the western part. The agreements were unanimous and are as follows:

Location of the Work
In the eastern section of the county on the Chicago road, beginning west of the village of Paw Paw at a point three miles from the DeKalb county line and continuing westerly along the state aid road as can be built with the amount provided, which totals $37,500.

In the western section of the county the work is to be centered on the Harmon to Dixon road. The improvement will start at the Dowd bridge, one and one-half miles north of the village of Harmon and continue toward Dixon as far as the $37,500 will build.

The specifications call for gravel road construction in both instances the highways to be built at a width of 12 feet.

In this connection it is gratifying to note the extent of road construction improvement in Lee county. There are very few people in Lee county who realize that 21 per cent of the roads in the county are now hard surfaces, either with gravel, stone, concrete brick or bituminous macadam. It is but another example of the rapid strides taken by the county board in the last few years toward road improvement.

Howat Gains Votes in Miners' Meeting

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 17.—Surprising strength favoring consideration by the convention of the United Mine Workers of America of an appeal by Alexander Howat and other expelled Kansas miners for reinstatement in the union was shown today in the early voting on the appeal.

Although the early voting gave a majority against taking up the appeal, administration supporters of President John L. Lewis said they were doubtful for the outcome.

Favorable action on Howat's appeal would throw the whole Kansas controversy before the convention, delaying until next week the consideration of the union's wage policy, the principal business before the convention.

"NOTHING NEW" DETECTIVES IN MYSTERY STATE

No Further Progress in Taylor Case Reported
Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—Following a two-hour re-examination of William Davis, chauffeur for Mabel Normand, investigators, police detectives, deputy sheriffs and others assigned to the task of trying to solve the mystery surrounding the killing of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, resumed their duties today with the announcement that they had made practically no further progress in the case as a result of quizzing Davis.

Though some of the investigators have eliminated Edward F. Sands, former valet for Taylor, from any connection with the case, the search for the missing man has not been abandoned. Latest reports to the authorities here relating to him, came from Hartford, Conn., where Sands was said to have been known among navy sailors during 1919 as "Chief" Snyder. Another report received by police detectives, was that the missing butler-secretary had fled to Mexico and had been seen in Chihuahua.

Mexico City, Feb. 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—Mexico is tranquil, except a few places in the state of Michoacan and Jalisco, according to reports from postmasters in all parts of the republic to Secretary of the Treasury De La Huerta in answer to his request for authentic information regarding reported rebellions against the central government.

Disturbances in a few places were reported, but these were described as being directed against organized society in general rather than the Mexican government, taking the form of marauding and looting.

It was said at the camp that this condition would continue until the rumor of an impending revolution in Mexico ends.

ART EXHIBIT WILL BE FEATURE DIXON LIBRARY ANNIVERSARY

Institution Will Have Lived
21 Years Next Sunday.

PROCLAMATION
The patrons and those of our people, who should make use of the privileges afforded by our Dixon Public Library, should as a fitting tribute to the generosity and public spiritedness shown by Mr. Cummins and Mr. Dodge in making it possible for us to have this very necessary feature in the progress and culture of our community, attend this anniversary, when there is also the wonderful opportunity to enjoy the splendid works of art, so kindly loaned for this occasion. If you have not been accustomed to visiting our library, get the habit. Start Sunday, Feb. 19th, or any time within the time this art exhibit is on display. You will find it well worth while. The librarians will be glad to welcome you always, and cheerfully attend your wishes.

Mark D. Smith, Mayor.

People of Dixon will be interested to know that on Sunday, Feb. 19th, the Dixon Public Library will have lived as an institution twenty-one years. No institution in Dixon has given more to the people than the Public Library.

So, the Board of Directors of the library, in memory of Dixon's two honored citizens, O. B. Dodge and Theodor Cummins, the donors of the library building and the book fund, the latter which has enabled the board to purchase approximately 20,000 volumes, in order to add to the interest and through the influence of Miss E. Louise Guernsey has obtained a very interesting exhibit of pictures of some of the leading Chicago artists, whose interest in Dixon and vicinity comes from the fact that some of the work was done at Grand Detour under the supervision of Charles Francis Brown.

The anniversary falling on Sunday, Feb. 19, the exhibit will be open to the public from 3 to 5 o'clock that afternoon, to which the public is cordially invited.

The following notice appeared in the club Messenger, the Art periodical of Chicago, announcing the exhibit:

"Dixon, Illinois, is leading in a new progressive venture by holding a civic exhibition of the works of Chicago artists. The exhibition is unique in that it is under the direction of the public library alone, thereby making it distinctly civic. The artists contributing have been most generous, and have responded heartily to the request of Miss E. Louise Guernsey, through Mrs. Minnie Harnes Neale. A few of them are personally interested in the success of the undertaking for some of their first landscape painting was done at Grand Detour, under the instruction of Charles Francis Brown. The whole region is rich in its offering of color, life and variety of subjects for the artists, and they have always expressed their appreciation of their reception while painting in the vicinity."

A catalogued list of the artists contributing, with the name and price of each picture will be found at the library.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Feb. 17.—County jail officials today expressed the belief that their fight to keep Harvey Church alive so that he can die on the gallows for the murder of Bernard Daugherty, would fail.

Forcible feeding of Church, who went on a hunger strike some time ago, was continued today but it was doubted if he could be kept alive through the two weeks of grace granted him yesterday pending a sanity hearing.

Church is too weak to move and remains silent on his cot with his eyes closed at all times.

WHEREIN ELLSWORTH AROUSES CURIOSITY OF ALL WHO PERUSE

Almost Told About Wm.
Bayard Hale's Interview with Bill.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Feb. 17.—William Bayard Hale's famous interview with the German Kaiser, sold to the Century Magazine in 1908 for $1000 and partly printed before it was suppressed, was almost made known to the world last night by William Webster Ellsworth, former president of the Century Publishing Company and great grandson of Noah Webster.

Portions of the famous interview were told to the students of the McDonough school of journalism after reporters had promised not to make them public.

"What was it," Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller asked at the conclusion of the address, "that the Kaiser said about my father? Do tell me even, though it was unfavorable."

"My dear lady," replied Noah Webster's great grandson, "I can only repeat that it was unfavorable. Other than that I remember nothing in that part of the interview. And every single copy of the interview was taken 600 miles out into the Atlantic and there burned by a picked detachment of German naval officers who spent the day in the furnace rooms of a warship to do it."

Mr. Ellsworth told how William Bayard Hale obtained permission to interview the Kaiser and how the latter spoke freely to him on scores of subjects while pacing the deck of a yacht in the moonlight. He told how the Century people bought it and suppressed it after requests to do this poured in on them when the London Telegraph printed an interview with the Kaiser that aroused much ill feeling in England and also in Germany. He told how President Roosevelt was given a copy and how all the other printed pages were placed in a safety deposit vault and later were turned over to the German government, which sent a warship here to get them. But what it was all about he refused to tell for publication.

ADDER FROM P. O. IN MICH. IS FOUND IN ROOM

Transit Identified as Having Been Property of Illinois.

The extent of the operations of Lloyd W. Robinson, former Amboy ex-soldier, is becoming more evident daily. Yesterday afternoon Engineer Lowe of the state department of public highways at Peoria, came to Dixon and identified the serial number on the transit which was found in Robinson's room at Streator Sunday. Letters found in suit cases taken in the search of the Howard home at Amboy disclosed the fact that Robinson had tried several places to dispose of the transit.

According to the engineer from the Peoria district office, the transit was stolen from an automobile in a garage at Bureau late last fall. Highway engineers were working near Bureau and their car was left in the garage over night. The thieves did not take the transit, thus rendering the instrument useless to them unless they had been able to procure a new tripod for the factory making the machine.

Had Post Office Machine.
Sheriff Schoenholtz learned this morning that the Sundstrand adding machine, taken from the attic of Robinson's room at Streator was the property of the United States post office department. The machine was purchased by the department from the factory at Rockford and was shipped to the postmaster at Eaton Rapids, Mich. A serial number tag fastened to the machine had been removed but a secret number on the inner workings had been overlooked and it was from this that the sheriff was successful in tracing the owner.

While in Peoria Tuesday, Sheriff Schoenholtz visited the sales office of the Sundstrand company and from their agent, learned of the location of a secret number. The matter has been taken up with post office department inspectors who are also investigating the finding of a mail pouch in the Howard home.

Sheriff Schoenholtz went to Princeton yesterday where he conferred with Sheriff Len Spaulding who is assisting in the search for Robinson. It is believed that Robinson and members of his gang operated extensively in Bureau county and Sheriff Spaulding is attempting to locate another plant in his county which if found may reveal much more stolen property.

Ex-Service Man Had Enjoyable Evening

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Waukegan, Ill., Feb. 17.—When the hungry ghost that has been heard about the home of Mrs. Catherine Mikalovich here foiled a shot gun squad that had stayed up all night looking for it, Lieut. Arnold Nolan, an overseas veteran, offered his services in running down the disturber. With his army pistol he entered the basement last night and seated himself near a table where he placed the pistol.

According to Lieut. Nolan, he heard the ghost all right. The stairs creaked. There was a moan. The door opened. A voice said:

"Ah, now I have you," and a hand seized his throat. The lieutenant reached for the pistol but it was gone. The grip on his throat relaxed. He turned on the lights. The ghost had departed. And the mystery remained unsolved.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

"They would disrobe in the carriages," he said. "The blind man would drive them out waist deep into the surf. As proof of the march of progress, go to any of the beaches now and see how different it all is."

Return to System of Honor at N. W. is Urged By Publication

Chicago, Feb. 17.—A return to the honor system at Northwestern University was advocated in today's issue of the student publication, the Daily Northwestern. The paper says that during examinations it is steadily increasing since abolishment of the honor system two years ago and the adoption in its stead of the Proctor system, providing for a faculty member in every room where an examination is being held. Students try to outwit the faculty members, the paper says, and would not cheat if there was no monitor in the room.

VITAMINE IN YEAST MAKES YOU HEALTHY
Chemists Find Way to Get Vitamines Out of Yeast

In Highly Concentrated Form Very Easy to Take
Most everyone knows how easy it is to clear up their skin, improve their appetite, add strength and vigor by taking Vitamines found in yeast, and now the chemists have found a way to give you highly concentrated tablets containing a proper dose of Yeast Vitamines obtained from yeast with the fermenting part left out. Then they add Glycerophosphates and Fat Soluble A Vitamine which thus combined into a tiny tablet are easy to take, more efficient and results quicker.

By using these highly concentrated, economical tablets some unusual results are often secured in two or three weeks.

Doctors, druggists, and chemists endorse the Phos-Pho Vitamine tablets as a better, easier way to take Vitamines. The tablets contain a proper dose and being made expressly for medicinal use do not upset the weakest stomach. Every bottle of sixteen tablets is packed in orange colored carton bearing name of the nationally known Irving Laboratory which is a guarantee of finest quality in medicine. The tablets are more of a food than a medicine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of Phos-Pho Vitamine tablets or send $1 to Irving Laboratory, Wheeling, W. Va. Now is the best time of all the year to take a good system regulating, blood enriching tonic such as this—Adv.

She Refused Him
"I was engaged to the prettiest little doll in Indiana, but my stomach and liver trouble had made me so grouchy that she broke it off. I tried all kinds of medicine and doctors and got no relief. The gas blew me up like a porcupine and I had awful colic attacks. Finally I heard of May's Wonderful Remedy and it has certainly fixed me up fine. I am now as good as ever." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allows the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.—Adv.

"I haven't enjoyed such good health or felt so well in every way in years as I do now. Before I took Tanlac I was so run down that half an hour at my work would tire me completely out and I was actually so nervous and weak that at times the brush would fall from my hands and I would have to quit work for the rest of the day. Every night I would lie awake for hours, miserable and nervous."

"My improvement after the first few doses of Tanlac was rapid and constant. I'm happy to say I'm well and strong now and feel better than in twenty years."

SUNSHINE CLASS BANQUET—

The Sunshine class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, taught by Mrs. A. J. Kay, held its 31st anniversary banquet Thursday evening, Feb. 16, in the church parlors. The banquet was attended by ninety and the event proved one of the most successful and entertaining in the life of the class.

The tables were beautifully decorated in blue and gold, the class colors, and flowers and ferns.

Beside the class members and teachers, Mrs. Kay, there were a few friends present, including the pastor of St. Paul's, Rev. L. W. Walter and wife, Rev. Stahl and family, of the Nachusa Lutheran orphanage, and Superintendent of the Sunday school, Walter White and wife.

After the banquet a program was given, including a piano duet by Josephine Whitish and Aletha Anderson, who were encored; a trio by Misses Marie Nelson, Eva Peterson and Edna Martinson, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Cora George; a solo by Mrs. Mabel Johnson, accompanied by Miss Grace Johnson; a piano solo by Miss Louise Smith, which was encored.

Rev. L. W. Walter made a few remarks on the Sunday school and church work, and Supt. Walter White of the Sunday school gave a short talk on work in the Sunday school. Mrs. A. J. Kay, teacher of this most successful class also made some seasonable remarks and Rev. Stahl of the Nachusa Orphanage gave a short talk and pronounced the benediction.

The ladies serving the bountiful and appetizing banquet were: Mesdames Schultz, Martinson, Whitish, Bremer, while Mrs. Davis had charge of the decorations and Mrs. Cookley had charge of the program. The entire evening was voted a great success.

IDEAL CLUB DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED—

Last evening the members of the Ideal club celebrated guest night and the members and guests were entertained at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Newcomer, 224 Third street.

An elegant dinner was served at 6:30, the decorations being simple yet beautiful, the centerpiece at the table being a large bouquet of fresias and carnations and ferns.

After the dinner and few enjoyable toasts, a happy evening was spent socially. A feature was the giving of stunts by all present, and the willingness with which each complied, made the occasion one of merriment and delight. Laughter was the keynote of the evening. Some of the stunts were remarkably clever, too, and gave evidence of talent as well as a vein of humor. The two little children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leydig were present and gave their stunts right cheerfully and won a large share of applause. Guessing contests occupied much time and the evening proved much too short, everyone in attendance pronouncing it one of the most enjoyable experienced in many moons.

Says Sales Tax is Harding's Plan to Raise Soldier Bous

Washington, Feb. 16.—President Harding informed congress today he considered a general sales tax the only feasible method of raising funds for a soldiers bonus.

The executive in a letter addressed to Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee and Chairman McCumber of the senate financial committee suggested that unless congress saw fit to enact a sales tax passage of bonus legislation should be temporarily postponed.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Enactment of a sales tax as the only practicable means of raising money for a soldier bonus was stated to be the view of President Harding by Representative Longworth of Ohio, a republican member of the house ways and means committee, after a call today at the White House. The Ohio representative did not say whether that view would be set forth by the President in his letter to members of the financial committees of congress.

Such an executive view was reflected by Senator Frelinghuysen, republican, New Jersey, who called at the White House while the President's letter was in course of preparation.

Charity Graft Easy State Officer Says

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, Feb. 17.—Explaining to the Brooklyn Rotary club how easy it would be to start an organization to provide pink umbrellas for the children of Patagonia, Dr. Charles H. Johnson, secretary of the State Board of Charities, declared that charity graft was one of the most despicable practices he knew.

"There are several thousand private charities with no central place to which they report," he added. "A safe estimate of the moneys collected by them is $100,000,000 a year."

Police Interrupt Hold-up in Room of Poker Players

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Patrolman Schmelzen saw a man drop from a second-story window of a place on William street early this morning and seized him.

"Bandits!" his prisoner gasped. "They are holding up a whole room full of men upstairs."

After sending in an emergency call the officer ran into the building. In a large room on the second floor where games had been in progress he found about fifty men lined up against the wall, two men covering them with revolvers and two others going through their pockets.

Schmelzen yelled to the holdup men to throw up their hands. They submitted and were disarmed by the men they had been robbing.

Police reinforcements, responding to the patrolman's emergency call, seized two automobiles and their drivers a block from the building where the holdup occurred. Both were stolen cars and it is believed the drivers were confederates of the four holdup men.

The police have the task of finding rightful owners of about $3,000 in cash gathered up by the bandits before they were interrupted.

ERSKINE DALE PIONEER

by JOHN FOX Jr

CHARLES NEWMAN
KANSAS

At sunset Dave knew that they were far behind him, but when darkness fell the lad's tracks Dave stopped for the night.

Dave laughed aloud the next forenoon. He's seen us tracking him and he's rubbed on us and is tracking us. I expect he's looking at us from somewhere around here."

He halted at the top of his voice. A war-whoop answered almost in their ears that made the blood leap in both the boys. Even Dave wheeled with cocked rifle, and the lad stepped from behind a bush scarcely ten feet behind them.

"Well, by gum," shouted Dave. "foolish us, after all."

A faint grin of triumph was on the lad's lips, but in his eyes was a waiting inquiry directed at Harry and Hugh. They sprang forward.

"We're sorry!"

On Firefly, Harry buckled the boy's saddle and motioned for him to climb up.

"He's your horse, cousin," said Harry. "My father sent him to you and says his home is yours whenever you please. And Barbara sent her mare."

At almost the same hour in the great house on the James the old negress was carrying to Colonel Dale a kindly deed that the lad had left behind him.

It was a rude scrawl on a sheet of paper, signed by the boy's Indian name and his totem mark—a buffalo pierced by an arrow.

"It makes me laugh. I have no use. I give hole dam plantashun Barbara."

Thus read the scrawl!

IX.

Three days later they reached the broad, beautiful Holston River, passing over the pine-crested, white-rock summit of Clinch Mountain, and came to the last outlying fort of the western frontier.

Next day they started on the long, low wilderness trail toward the Cumberland range. On the third day therefrom the gray wall of the Cumberland gathered its flanks into steep gray cliffs and dipped suddenly into Cumberland gap. Up this they climbed. On the summit they went into camp, and next morning Dave swept a long arm toward the wild expanse to the west.

"Four more days," he cried, "and we'll be there!"

Toward sunset Dave, through a sixth sense, had the uneasy feeling that he was not only being followed but watched from the cliffs alongside, and he observed that Erskine, too, had more than once turned in his saddle or lifted his eyes searchingly to the shaggy crags of the hills.

The trail was broad enough next morning for them to ride two abreast—Dave and Erskine in advance. They had scarcely gone a hundred yards when an Indian stepped into the path twenty yards ahead. Instinctively Dave threw his rifle up, but Erskine caught his arm. The Indian had lifted his hand—palm upward.

"Shawnee!" said the lad, as two more appeared from the bushes. The eyes of the two tide-water boys grew large, and both clinched their guns convulsively. The Indian spokesman paid no heed except to Erskine—and only from the lad's face, in which surprise was succeeded by sorrow and then deep thoughtfulness, could they guess what the guttural speech meant, until Erskine turned to them.

They were not on the war-path against the whites, he explained. His foster-father—Kahtoo, the big chief, the king—was very ill, and his message, brought by them, was that Erskine should come back to the tribe and become chief, as the chief's only daughter was dead and his only son had been killed by the palefaces.

They knew that in the fight at the fort Erskine had killed the Shawnee, his tormentor, for they knew the arrow, which Erskine had not had time to withdraw. The dead Shawnee's brother—Crooked Lightning—with him. He it was who had recognized the boy the day before, and they had kept him from killing Erskine from the bushes.

He sat on his horse like a king and spoke as a king. He thanked them for holding back Crooked Lightning's evil hand, but—contemptuously he spat toward the huge ravine—he was not to die by that hand. He was a paleface and the Indians had slain his white mother. He had forgiven that.

On Firefly, Harry buckled the boy's saddle and motioned for him to climb up.

"He's your horse, cousin," said Harry. "My father sent him to you and says his home is yours whenever you please. And Barbara sent her mare."

They were not on the war-path against the whites, he explained. His foster-father—Kahtoo, the big chief, the king—was very ill, and his message, brought by them, was that Er-til he can show that his heart is good." And then with an imperious gesture he waved his hand toward the west: "Now go!"

It was hard even for Dave to realize that the lad, to all purposes, was actually then the chief of a powerful tribe, and even he was a little awed by the instant obedience of the savages, who, without a word, melted into the bushes and disappeared.

It was nearing sunset and from a little hill Dave pointed to a thin blue wisp of smoke rising far ahead from the green expanse.

"There's the fort, boys!" he cried.

X.

The green of the wilderness dulled and burst into the yellow scarlet and russet. This glory in turn dulled and the leaves, like petals of withered flowers, began to drift to the earth.

Through the shower of them went Erskine and Firefly.

From his conical cap the bushy tail hung like a plume; his deer-skin hunting-shirt, made by old Mother Sanders, was beaded and fringed—fringed across the breast, at the wrists and at the hem, and girded by a belt from which the horned handle of a scalping-knife showed in front and the head of a tomahawk behind; his powder-horn swung under one shoulder and his bullet-pouch, wadding, flint, and steel under the other; his long rifle across his saddle-bow. For food he carried only a little sack of salt, for his rifle would bring him meat and the forest would give him nuts and fruit.

On the fourth day he reached the river and swam it holding rifle and powder-horn above his head. On the seventh he was nearing the village where the sick chief lay, and when he caught sight of the teepees in a little creek bottom, he fired his rifle, and putting Firefly into a gallop and with his right hand high swept into the village.

The flaps of the chief's tent parted and his foster-mother started toward him with a sudden stream of tears and turned quickly back. The old chief's keen black eyes were waiting for her and he spoke before she could open her lips:

"White Arrow! It is well. Here—at once!"

Erskine had swung from his horse and followed. The old chief measured him from head to foot slowly and his face grew content:

"You must ride north soon to carry the white wampum and a peace talk. And when you go you must hurry back, for when the sun is highest on the day after you return, my spirit will pass."

He turned his face and went back into sleep.

The lad saw an aged Indian emerge from one of two tents that sat apart on a little rise.

"Who is that?" he asked. "The new prophet," said his foster-mother.

An armful of pine fagots was tossed on the blaze, and in a leap of light he saw his face of a woman at the other tent. Startled, he caught his mother by the wrist.

"And that?"

"A paleface. Kahtoo bought her and adopted her but"—the old woman gave a little guttural cluck of triumph—"she dies tomorrow. Kahtoo will burn her."

"Burn her?" burst out the boy.

"The palefaces have killed many of Kahtoo's kin."

A little later when he was passing near the white woman's tent a girl sat in front of it pounding corn in a mortar. She looked up at him and, staring, smiled. She had the skin of the half-breed, and he stopped, startled by that fact and her beauty—and went quickly on. He turned to find his foster-mother watching him.

"Who is that girl?" The old woman looked displeased.

"Daughter of the white woman."

"What is her name?"

"Early Morn."

He would like to know more of those two, but the old Indian woman caught him by the arm:

"You will only make more trouble."

He followed the flash of her eyes to the edge of the firelight where a young Indian stood watching and scowling:

"Who is that?"

"Black Wolf, son of Crooked Lightning."

Within the old chief called faintly and the Indian woman motioned the lad to go within.

"Talk!" he commanded.

"I have been with my people," said the lad simply. "They are many and strong and rich. They have big houses of stone such as I had never seen and they plant more corn than all the Shawnees and Iroquois."

Five-Minute Egg Club Members Hard Boiled

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The Co-fraternity of Five Minute Eggs was organized at the University of Chicago to combat sissism yesterday. Charter members of the club posed for their pictures with a chew of tobacco bulging in their cheeks. The Five Minute Egg club, so called, it was explained, because an egg boiled for five minutes is hard boiled, will war on wasp clothes, high heels, scented water and other effeminate accoutrements for men.

"Women can and do smoke cigarettes," said Daniel Prothero, of the University swimming team, who was elected president of the Five Minute Eggs.

"Some smoke pipes and cigars, but they cannot chew tobacco. Neither can they go ten fast rounds with the gloves. If we suspect a guy of being a sissy, one of the requirements for entrance will be a ten round bout."

MOTHER, QUICK! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS WITH "CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP"

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. It constipates, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "CALIFORNIA" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Adv.

Thinking of Tomorrow

If by some magic the curtain of the future might be drawn back and you could see life as it will be ten or twenty years from today—where would you be?

You know the answer. The men and women who will then have the most independence and influence in our community will be the ones who today think and plan most wisely for the tomorrows—and hold themselves ready to take advantage of every opportunity that comes.

Nothing will help you more, five or ten years from now, than the dollars you can save by starting today—and you can save best by getting some bank to co-operate with you. As members of the Federal Reserve Banking System we are prepared to co-operate with you in every way. Let us show you how to save and to make your money work for you.

FIRST GAMES GRADE B. B. TOURNEY SHOW BIG SCRAP IS NEAR

7th Graders of South Central. Defeat 8th Grade 9 to 8.

(BY MURPHY.)

If the game Thursday afternoon between the 7th and 8th grade teams of the South Central grade school, which opened the Grade School basketball tournament, is an indication of what the tournament will be, there will be some rare sport before the pennant is won. In the last minute of play Dick Forrest, from the corner of the floor dropped in a long high one and won the game for the 7th graders 9-8. The first quarter was scoreless but the fireworks started in the second, both teams scoring, but the 8th led by two points when the whistle blew, 6-4. The second half was as tough a scrap as has been played for sometime. The 7th graders tied the score and then went one point into the lead which advantage was lost during the last few minutes of play when Reagan dropped one in from the center of the floor, which caused the wildest of excitement till "Nimble" Dick came along with his sensational shot which won the game and then pandemonium reigned.

South Central 7th: Wm. Miller, rf; Forrest, lf; Weimann, c; Keller, rg; Shank, lg.

South Central 8th: Keyes-Thompson rf; Reagan, lf; Thorne, c; Place, dg; Bondi, lg.

Field Goals: Keyes 2, Miller, Forrest, Weimann, Thorne, Reagan.

Free Throws: Miller 2, Weimann.

Referee: Rosecrans.

Copier: Kerz.

Scorer: Hoogenstein.

Thunderbolts Took Contest; Surprise Selves and Others

The Thunderbolts sprung a surprise in the volleyball tournament last evening when they took over the Tornadoes two out of three games for a total of 41 to 33 points. Although the Thunderbolts were minus their captain, who came out second best in an argument with a buzz saw and so was unable to play they went into the game with fire in their eyes and came out with the game sewed up in great style. The first game went to the Thunderbolts, 11-11. The Tornadoes then turned the tables and took the second by the same score that they lost the first, namely 15-11. With Jimmy Cledon at the bat the Thunderbolts took a big lead in the third tilt and held it all the way through allowing the Tornadoes only 7 points. After this victory the Thunderbolts are naturally very much elated and expect to repeat next Thursday.

Tornadoes: Smith, captain; DerKinderen, Ballou, Fournan, Hirsch.

Girls! Use Lemons to Whiten Hands

Press the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter-pint of harmless and delightful lemon-bleach lotion to soften and whiten red, rough or chapped hands. This home-made lemon lotion is far superior to glycerin and rose water to smoothen the skin. Famous stage beauties use it to bleach and bring that soft clear, rosy-white complexion, because it doesn't irritate.—Adv.

Seniors Hot After Rubber with Harmon

In an interview with Manager Wadsworth of the Y Seniors we learn that he has been trying to schedule a rubber game with the Harmon quintette but so far has been unsuccessful. Dixon won the first game on the local floor and then lost to Harmon by a close score on the Harmon floor and now the Seniors are willing, nay anxious, to play the third and on the Harmon floor at that, but whether its cold feet, lack of time or what we don't know, anyway the Herman manager won't talk business and Manager Wadsworth has about given up the proposition as a bad job.

Saturday Will Be Busy Day at Assn.

Saturday will, as usual, be a busy day about the Physical Department of the Y. Starting at 9 o'clock the Junior "Bs" have class followed by their tournament, then the "As", class and tournament. At 1:00 the North Central Grade school plays the South Central 8th Grade in the grade school basketball tournament. Two o'clock is the Intermediates' hour for class and basketball. Three will see Ashton Pioneers playing a team of Junior "As" and "Bs" composed of Giessner, Wilson, Segner, Joyce, Lough, Keller and Forrest. At 4:00 the Ashton and Franklin Grove high school basketball teams will start things and at 5:00 the business men will take their last workout at volleyball for the week. At 7:00 the Independents, a team of Junior "As" will play a similar team from Amboy and the Seniors will wind the day up with a battle with the Rock Falls M. E. church basketball team.

Domestic Service Praised By Member House of Commons

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Feb. 17.—Domestic service is a skilled job and the opposite of a degrading occupation, declared Lady Astor, M. P., presiding at a conference of unemployment among women. "When I listen to the anti-women members in the house of commons," she added, "I rather long to go to them as a domestic. It would be such a wonderful chance of what the soldiers called 'learning 'em'."
